Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost

At Northlea United Church,
we encourage one another as we:
Love God ✧ Connect with others
Nurture the spirit ✧ Serve the world

Northlea rests on the traditional territory of many nations including the Mississaugas of the Credit, the Anishnabeg, the Chippewa, the Haudenosaunee and the Wendat peoples and is now home to many diverse First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples. We also acknowledge that Toronto is covered by Treaty 13 with the Mississaugas of the Credit.

Thank you for joining us for service today whether in-person or online. If there is anything we can do to improve your experience, please let us know by calling the church office at 416 425 5252 or emailing us at office@northleaunited.ca. There are many ways to access online videos whether live streamed or pre-recorded. The Northlea United Facebook page or our website will have links to our services:

Sharing what we have:

We give as an expression of gratitude for all that God has done and is doing in and through us.

Ways to give financially:

1. Cash or cheque made payable to Northlea United Church – this can be mailed in or put into an envelope available in the foyer and dropped in the collection plate (be sure to include your contact information in order to receive a tax receipt at the end of the year);
2. Online via Canada Helps (just scan this QR code to be brought to the secure online donation form);
3. Through automatic monthly Pre-Authorized Remittance – Forms are available from the church office: office@northleaunited.ca

We are thankful for all your gifts as they sustain the life and work of this church.

Please contact the church office if you would like more information.

Prelude

Welcome

Lighting of the Christ Candle:

Jesus said, "Where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there."

(The Christ Candle is lit.)

We light the Christ candle, sign and symbol of Christ's presence among us.

Karen MacNeill, Whycomagh-East Lake Ainslie P.C., Whycomagh, N.S

Acknowledgement of the Land:

Northlea rests on the traditional territory of many nations including the Mississaugas of the Credit, the Anishnabeg, the Chippewa, the Haudenosaunee and the Wendat peoples and is now home to many diverse First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples. We also acknowledge that Toronto is covered by Treaty 13 with the Mississaugas of the Credit.

Response:

We believe that our relationships with the Creator,
the land, the people, the plants and the animals are sacred.

Introit: Commit Your Way to the Lord - (Psalm 37:5)

Liebhold, died c. 1730

Psalm 37:5 encourages individuals to commit their way to the Lord and trust in God, assuring that God will act on their behalf. This verse emphasizes the importance of relying on God for guidance and support in life's decisions.

Call to Worship & Opening Prayer:

Holy God, you know us as we are. You know that each one of us comes with things to celebrate and gloomy thoughts that cloud our perspective. You reach out to us in this time of worship, that our perspective may be cleared and refocused.

You reach out to us and invite us to experience the healing and the joy of your company. Let us be transformed by your actions and your presence. Amen.

Ryan McNally, St. Mark's U.C., Cannifton, ON. (for Luke 19:1-10)

The Gift of Peace:

The peace of Christ be with you.

And also with you.

Let us exchange words and gestures of peace

(Take a moment to turn and greet one another in the peace of Christ—a smile, a bow, a wave)

Opening Hymn: We Are all Parts of One Body

Bob Hurd

❖ Responding ❖

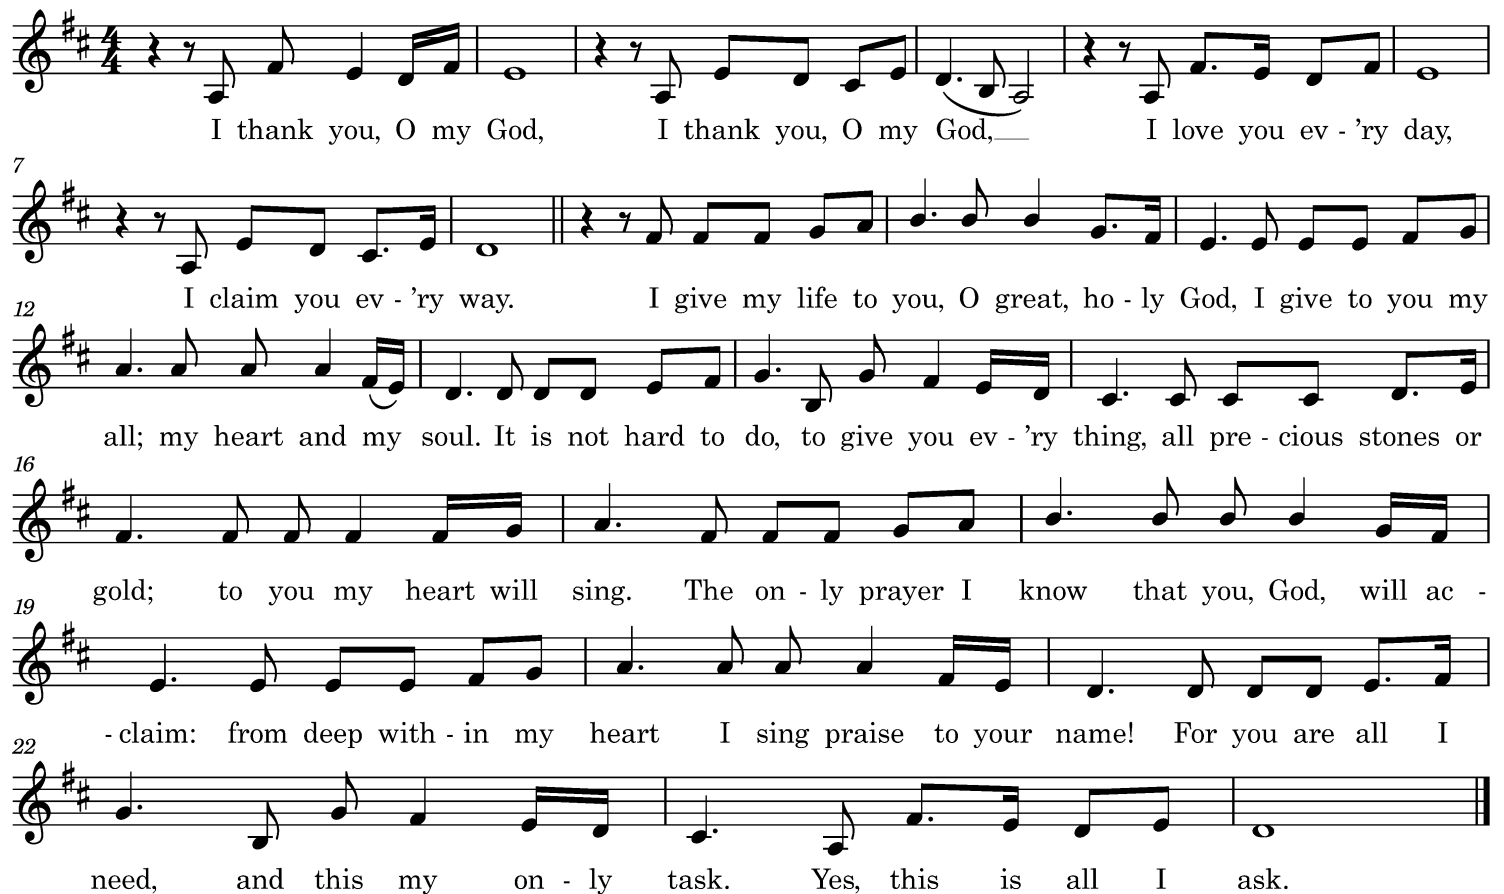

Offering Prayer:

(On the back of cover of the bulletin, or on our website, you will discover the various ways that you can give. When we gather in-person, we have a plate at the entrance where people can place their donations. At this time, we publicly acknowledge and bless the many gifts that are generously shared in and for this community).

Holy One, you have called us friends and named us partners in your work of Creation. Accept the gifts we bring and bless them for your use, that they may reveal to others the depth of your love for all people and for Creation itself. Amen.

Karen MacNeill, Whycocomagh-East Lake Ainslie P.C., Whycocomagh, N.S

Prayers of the People

Lord's Prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever.
 Amen.

Closing Hymn: Let All Things Now Living

Voices United 242

Blessing and Sending Forth:

Let us go from here to seek;
may what is lost be found.
 Let us go to proclaim the Good News;
let us rejoice and be glad,
 for in the power of God's love,
what is lost will be found.
When we are lost, we will be found.

Beth W Johnston, Bridging Waters P.C., Nipawin, Sask
